The musical score is written for Piano, Flute, and Soprano (S). The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and the time signature is 3/4. The tempo is marked as 140 beats per minute. The score is divided into three systems, each corresponding to a verse of the song. The first system (measures 1-8) features a piano introduction with triplets in the right hand and a flute melody in the left hand. The soprano part enters in measure 8. The second system (measures 9-18) continues the piano accompaniment and flute melody, with the soprano part singing the second line of the verse. The third system (measures 19-28) features a more active piano accompaniment and flute melody, with the soprano part singing the third line of the verse. The score concludes with a final piano chord in measure 28.
